

UNITED STATES SENATE
Washington, D. C.

February 26, 1947.

Lt. Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg
Director of Central Intelligence
Room 2161, New War Department Building
Washington, D.C.

Dear General Vandenberg:

I want to thank you for coming up this morning and giving me the information which had been requested of you by a routine letter sent to all agencies of government by myself as chairman of the Senate Committee on Expenditures in the Executive Departments.

I realize the importance of keeping this information absolutely secret and am writing to inform you that instead of keeping the information in my personal files, as I told you I would do, I have destroyed the papers.

Sincerely yours,

(s) George D. Aiken
